Special Consideration

Special consideration is the process for assessing the impact of short-term events beyond your control (e.g., illness or injury) on your performance in a specific assessment task or inability to meet the attendance requirement. It is not intended to be a hardship allowance.

For more detailed information, please refer to the UNSW Special Consideration Guideline (Long Version).

Waitlists & Enrolment

- UNSW requires that programs and materials be reviewed on a regular basis. Please note that programs, program structures, and course outlines are subject to change. Changes may have different impacts on student outcomes at different stages.
- To request assistance with your program planning, contact the Student Experience team for a Progress Consultation. We can help you navigate the options available to ensure you maximise your learning experience.
- Further information and instructions for Class Registration waitlisting will be forwarded by AGSM Student Experience prior to Class Registration opening. Early enrolment is advised to secure preferred class venue and time.
- Enrolment may be facilitated until the end of week 1, subject to availability. Please note that classes with low enrolments may be cancelled.
- Please contact AGSM Student Experience (studentexperience@agsm.edu.au or +61 (02) 9931 9400) for assistance with enrolment - we can walk you through it.

For further information and if you need assistance, please contact the AGSM Student Experience team on studentexperience@agsm.edu.au or +61 (02) 9931 9400 or via Teams - we're on this journey with you!
Class Modes

Face-to-face Weekly or Fortnightly:
Course delivery occurs over a 12 week Term. F2F Weekly classes run 6-7:30pm for 11 weeks & F2F Fortnightly classes 6-9pm fortnightly (ie 2 weekly class units). The Fortnightly class sequence for Term 1 is TBA whether odd or even week fortnights for attendance. Weekly and Fortnightly classes require a minimum of 80% attendance. Due to strict social distancing requirements, attendance at an alternate class due to illness, family or work commitments must be approved by Student Experience, pending the class size, group work progress and whether an alternate night is running.
If you are feeling unwell in the lead-up to Weekly or Fortnightly F2F class do not attend class and seek medical advice. If this means that you will not be able to attend, please let Student Experience and your Facilitator know and apply for Special Consideration. Please consider the health and safety of your colleagues.

Face-to-face Intensive:
Course delivery occurs over a 12-week period and includes 2 intensive weekends. Intensive courses require 100% attendance and students are required to complete weekly coursework, readings and online activities/discussions through Moodle prior to attending class. If 100% attendance isn’t met a student must apply for Special Consideration within 3 working days if order to remain in the course (through Central UNSW & meet the criteria).

Online WEB:
Course delivery occurs over a 12 week period through the online eLearning platform Moodle. Students are required to complete coursework, reading, and assessment; and participate in regular online discussions and/or activities. This is a flexible format and does not have scheduled face-to-face meetings each week. Readings, learning activities and assessments are accessible online. Students are expected to log on to the course site on a regular basis (i.e. several times each week), for participation in discussion threads & activities which are due weekly. Many online courses include prescheduled video conferences for class introductions & assessment briefings. Dates and details of the video conferences will be made available by the Facilitator at the commencement of Term.

Online ‘Virtual or VC Class’:
Are delivered weekly online at a set day and time for 90 minutes eg 6-7:30pm is similar to a weekly face to face class but with a virtual delivery. The link to the weekly session will be provided through the Moodle class site and is likely to be via the Collaborate Ultra platform or zoom.

Weekly Classes:
Course delivery occurs over a 12 week period and includes either 1 weekly CBD evening face-to-face 90 minute class (generally 6-7:30pm at the UNSW CBD Campus) or a 3 hour weekly class during business hours at the UNSW Kensington campus (Full-time MBA courses). Weekly classes are scheduled across 10 to 12 weeks (can vary per course, but assume 12). Weekly classes require a minimum of 80% attendance.

Special Consideration
Special consideration is the process for assessing the impact of short-term events beyond your control (exceptional circumstances), on your performance in a specific assessment task or inability to meet the attendance requirement. You can find more detail via the links below.

Waitlists
In T1 2020 UNSW introduced Course Waitlisting (Step 1 of the enrolment process). From Term 3, 2020 AGSM is participating in the UNSW Class Registration Waitlist pilot. This functionality allows students to waitlist for a class per mode, day & time. Further information and instructions for Class Registration waitlisting will be forward by AGSM Student Experience prior to Class Registration opening. Early enrolment is advised to secure preferred class venue and time. Room caps for face to face classes in Term 3 will vary in accordance with the COVID permitted maximum room capacity which is based upon room square meterage. Enrolment may be facilitated until the end of week 1, subject to availability. Please note classes with low enrolments may be cancelled.
Please do not enrol in classes you do not intend to proceed with as this impacts your colleagues and the viability of scheduled offerings.

For further information and for all enquiries, please contact the AGSM Student Experience team.
