

School of Accounting - 1999 Seminars

Date	Speaker/ Affiliation	Topic
Thu, 3 Mar	Christine Tan University of Melbourne	The Ex Ante Relative Valuation Roles of Equity Book Value and Net Income as a Function of the Restructuring of Financial Health
Fri, 30 Apr	Prof Katherine Schipper University of Chicago	'TBA'
Fri, 14 May	Prof Roger Simnett University of New South Wales	Uncertainty Resolution Strategies: auditors' response to changes in the audit reporting standards
Fri, 28 May	Prof Severin Grabski Michigan State University	Returns to IT Spending: effects on efficiency and effectiveness
Fri, 11 Jun	Robert Czernkowski University of New South Wales	Generation of Private Signals by Analysts
Fri, 20 Aug	Marianne Pitts University of Warwick	Did Dividends Dictate Depreciation in British Coal Companies 1864-1914?
Fri, 3 Sep	Professor Chris Nobes University of Reading	An Analysis of the International Development of the Equity Method
Fri, 10 Sep	Professor Gary Munro Edith Cowan University	The Effects of Gender and Task Complexity on Audit Judgment
Fri, 24 Sep	Shee Boon Law Victoria University of Wellington	The Performance of Analytical Procedures in Detecting Transaction Errors
Fri, 8 Oct	Roger Gibson University of New South Wales	Exploring the Effectiveness and Success of a First Year Accounting Course
Fri, 22 Oct	Margaret Lightbody University of Adelaide	Hoarding and Hiding: perceptions of financial management behaviour in a church organisation
Fri, 5 Nov	A/Professor Peter Lockett University of New South Wales	Strategic Performance Measurement: an empirical examination of the association between competitive methods and performance measures