At UNSW Business School we believe whilst asking ‘why?’ may lead to knowledge, asking ‘why not?’ leads to innovation and progress. This is the ethos of the Business School and reflects our pioneering attitude and entrepreneurial flair.
‘UNSW has provided me the opportunity to follow my dream of becoming an Olympian while pursuing my professional interests in the business world. The courses within my degree have the right balance between theory and practical application, and the individual support I have experienced ensures that I am not lost in the crowd.’

Henry Hutchison

Co-op scholarship programs, offered to domestic students only, have been established by UNSW and industry to provide financial support and industry training to high-achieving students.

The programs combine the academic rigour of a degree with 18 months of industry experience with highly sought after sponsor organisations and a substantial tax-free scholarship paid on a per annum basis for the duration of the degree. There is also professional development and leadership training and mentoring from an academic co-ordinator.

ADDITIONAL ENTRY REQUIREMENTS:
You are required to lodge a separate UNSW Co-op Program application with the Co-op Office in addition to a UAC application. For more information (including application deadline), visit: co-op.unsw.edu.au

‘Studying at the UNSW Business School isn’t only about the societies or programs available, it’s an invaluable opportunity to learn in some of the most progressive classroom settings, with supportive teachers and like-minded students. UNSW Business School is really like no other and I would definitely encourage any student thinking of studying business to consider UNSW Business School.’

Patricia Argeseanu
Bachelor of Commerce (Co-op)

Our scholarships provide financial assistance to high achieving students, talented students from rural and regional areas, indigenous students and those affected by financial and social constraints.
