

UNSW Business School

Master of Philosophy (MPhil)

Program Learning Goals and Outcomes

1. Advanced knowledge of a field: Our students will have the ability to understand and apply an advanced body of knowledge within a particular field.

- a. Students should be able to demonstrate a superior command of knowledge in the relevant field.
- b. Students should be able to demonstrate an understanding of research principles and methods appropriate to the relevant field of work.

2. Research capability: Our students will have the ability to undertake research that makes a contribution to knowledge in the relevant field.

- a. Students should be able to reflect critically on existing theoretical knowledge, ideas and practice within the relevant field..
- b. Students should be able to plan and execute a substantial piece of research with a high level of autonomy..

3. Communication: Our students will have the ability to communicate research effectively.

- a. Students should be able to coherently present the theoretical underpinnings, methodologies and results of research through oral presentations to specialist and non-specialist audiences.
- b. Students should be able to demonstrate an ability to present a coherent and sustained argument and disseminate their research in writing.