The UNSW Business School is offering first year students the chance to undertake intensive study during the mid-year break at the Antai Global Summer School at Shanghai Jiao Tong University, one of the most reputable universities in Asia.

Course Details and Credit

The course runs from 3rd July to 22nd July 2016. Students will depart Sydney as a group on 2nd July.

It consists of a blend of business, culture and Chinese language classes. It includes company visits and excursions to sights of significant cultural importance around Shanghai.

Students participating will receive 6 Units of Credit towards their degree. The credit will be awarded at the end of semester 2 and this course will be considered a Level 1 Business elective.

Important Dates

29 March: Deadline to submit application (attaching your expression of interest, CV and passport)

4 April: notification of outcome of application (successful/unsuccessful)

18 April: Information Session for successful applicants at 12pm to 1pm in Quad 2093

2 July: Depart Sydney (the group will travel together).

23 July: Return to Sydney (arrive 24 July).

Student Participation and Eligibility

Applications are sought from first year students at the Business School. No knowledge of Chinese languages or previous travel experience is required.

UNSW will ensure adequate pre-departure training. Insurances are covered by UNSW Australia. Students must be 18 years of age or older at the time of commencing the course (3 July 2015).

This course is open to both domestic and international students, however international students who are Chinese citizens or residents of Hong Kong are not eligible.

A maximum of 8 students will be accepted as part of this course.
Costs

Participating students enrol in a course at UNSW and pay the standard tuition fee.

In addition students will pay approximately $3600 to cover flights, enrolment in the Antai Global Summer School, cultural field trips, class materials, some meals, visa processing fee, accommodation in Shanghai (3 star, on-campus), and transfers to and from Shanghai airport. Note: New Colombo Plan Travel Grants of $2000 are available for this course.

This is a special price based on an agreement with Shanghai Jiao Tong University and represents a saving of over $3000 on the standard price.

Application

Eligible students wishing to participate in this course must apply by 11.59pm on 29th March via email to busintlexp@unsw.edu.au attaching the following documents:

- Expression of Interest
- A 1-2 page CV, including educational and professional experience
- A copy of your valid passport

You will be notified of the outcome of your application by 5pm on Monday, 4th April 2016.

Accommodation

During the program period, students are housed in a three-star residence hotel on Xuhui campus, which is within 15-minute-walking distance from Antai College. Two students of the same gender will share one standard room. The room is equipped with TV, air-conditioning, free Internet access, shower booth and hair dryer etc.

Immunisations and Health

Each student is responsible for their own health before and during the course. You should consult your doctor to get advice about vaccinations or other health issues. You should also consult the Australian Government website for travellers. www.smartertraveller.gov.au

UNSW Travel Insurance

UNSW’s travel insurance policy covers students taking this course. You are obliged to read and understand all details of the policy. While UNSW aims to assist you with cost effective insurance, the coverage may not meet the requirements of all students going on this course. In such cases, we strongly recommend you arrange your own travel coverage through a private insurance provider.