

Tuesday, September 6th, 2016

Tyree Room

Scientia Conference and Events Centre

John Niland Scientia Building, UNSW main campus

The Real Estate Initiative of the Centre for Applied Economic Research is hosting its second annual Real Estate Symposium, supported by the UNSW Business School, RF Capital and the Australian Research Council.

Program

08:30	Arrival tea and coffee
08:55	Welcome: Elizabeth Carson , Associate Dean Research (Acting), UNSW Business School
Session 1	Chair: Kevin Fox , Director - CAER, UNSW Business School
09:00	Fred Hilmer , Professor and former Vice Chancellor, UNSW "Competition Policy and Real Estate"
09:45	Tim Lawless , Research Director, Asia Pacific, CoreLogic "The Outlook for Sydney Dwelling Values: Affordability, Supply Levels and Rental Markets"
10:30	Morning tea and coffee
Session 2	Chair: Nalini Prasad , UNSW Business School
11:00	Peter Jolly , Global Head of Research - Fixed Income, Currencies & Commodities Product & Markets, National Australia Bank "How Overpriced are Australian Dwellings? – An application of Tobin's q"
11:45	Glenn Otto , UNSW Business School "How Connected are Australia's Major Housing Markets?"

12:30	Lunch
Session 3	Chair: John Swieringa , Manager, Macro-Financial Unit, Commonwealth Treasury
13:30	Alicia Rambaldi , University of Queensland "The Value of Urban Land: Tax Revenue and Beyond"
14:15	Nigel Stapledon , UNSW Business School "Options for Value Capture"
15:00	End of Symposium - afternoon tea and coffee

For Symposium papers and presentations please visit www.caer.unsw.edu.au

Contacts:

Professor Kevin Fox
 Director, Centre for Applied Economic Research
 UNSW Business School
 (02) 9385 3320
 0434 147 405
k.fox@unsw.edu.au

Dr Nigel Stapledon
 Real Estate Research Fellow
 Centre for Applied Economic Research
 UNSW Business School
 (02) 9385 9703
 0403 921 644
nigel.stapledon@unsw.edu.au