

16th SOCIETY OF HETERODOX ECONOMISTS CONFERENCE 2017
UNIVERSITY OF NSW
Monday 4th December

	Mathews C	Mathews D
9.00-10.00	Lobby Mathews Lecture Theatres
	Registration
	Welcome to the land
10.00-11.00	Financial instability Michelle Baddeley (University of South Australia): Financial instability and speculative bubbles: Behavioural insights and policy implications Martin Watts James Juniper and Adam Kaczynski, (University of Newcastle): A Stock-Flow-Consistent Perspective on Financial Fragility	Wellbeing Joffre Balce: Humane Approaches to Economic Crises: A Georgist-Inspired Strategy Shann Turnbull, (International Institute for Self-governance): The role of governance on the wellbeing of individuals or organisations
11.00-11.30	Morning Tea
11.30-12.30	The Australian Institute: Policy In Australia
12.30-1.30	Lunch
1.30-2.30	Fred Lee Memorial Lecture in Heterodox Economics Heterodox Price Theory Applied to Technological Change Harry Bloch, Curtin University
2.30-3.00	Afternoon Tea
3.00-5.00	Causes and Consequences of the Decline in Labour's Share of GDP: Heterodox Perspectives." Chair: Dr. Frances Flanagan, Research Director, United Voice Margaret Mackenzie (Australian Council of Trade Unions): Minimum Wages and Labour's Share of Income David Peetz (Griffith Business School): The Labour Share and Power Shaun Wilson (Macquarie University): Finding New Bases for Workers' Power Jim Stanford (Centre for Future Work): Australia's Labour Share in International Perspective
5.00	Book Launch of Harry Bloch's Schumpeter's Price Theory and Craig Freedman's In Search of the Two-Handed Economist (Mathews Pavillions)
6.30 7.00	Predrinks sponsored by The Australia Institute Conference Dinner Lebanon and Beyond, 3/187 Alison Rd, Randwick, Sydney NSW 2031

All Teas and Lunches in Mathews Pavillions

Tuesday 5th December

	Mathews C	Mathews D
9.30-11.00	Applied Policy Alan Morris (UTS): The financialisation of housing and the housing affordability crisis in Sydney David Richardson (The Australia Institute): The equity premium in Australia Shann Turnbull (International Institute for Self-governance): Is a stable financial system possible?	Perspectives on Europe Joseph Halevi(IUC Turin, (University of Sydney): A Kaleckian Perspective on the political economy of Europe since 1945 George Pantelopoulos (University of Newcastle): What Are the Future Prospects A Modern Money Appraisal Joseph Halevi: Monopoly capitalism as an explanation of the European experience
11.00-11.30	Morning Tea
11.30-12.30	Cambridge Rod O'Donnell (UTS): The Inevitability Of Long Period Equilibria In Keynes's Mature Economics Geoff Harcourt (UNSW): The role of Sraffa prices in post-Keynesian pricing theory
12.30-1.30	Lunch
1.30-3.30	AFEE Sydney University Political Economy Student presentations Luciano Carment, Quantitative Easing and Corporate Surplus Hoarding in Japan Natasha Heenan, Appraising Ecotourism as a Sustainable Development Strategy Lee Ridge, The Politics and Economics of the Cost-Benefit Analysis of the National Broadband Network (NBN) Kimberly Yoo: Complexity in Minskian approaches to the firm: endogenous cycles and mesoeconomics
3.30-4.00	Afternoon Tea
4.00-5.00	Policy in Theory Peter Kriesler and J.W. Nevile (UNSW): Expectations and the economy Matthew Smith (University of Sydney): Some Policy Implications of Demand-Led Growth in a Classical Framework	Role of Markets Claire Baker (University of New England): Experiencing change in a globalising agricultural economy: A case study Alan Scott (University of New England): Remaking market Society